General Guidelines for Promotion to the Rank of Senior Lecturer

1. The criteria for promotion from the rank of Lecturer II to Senior Lecturer are as follows:
   - Demonstrated evidence in classroom or laboratory teaching (and advising, when applicable).
   - Demonstrated contributions of importance to the undergraduate educational mission of the department beyond classroom teaching. This evidence should be manifest in such areas as new course development, curriculum development, and extracurricular activities, but need not be limited to these areas.
   - Demonstrated contributions to the undergraduate mission of the University through activities that go beyond the department, as manifest by the significance of their participation in Dietrich School-wide or University-wide initiatives and/or the candidate’s contributions to national pedagogy in their discipline.
   - A title reserved for persons of considerable professional attainment, of eminence, or with recognized expertise in their fields of scholarship or in the creative arts. Renewable appointments are for five years.

2. Review for possible promotion begins at the department level. The Faculty member and the Chair of the department should consult the “Criteria for Appointment, Evaluation, and Reappointment of Appointment Stream Faculty.”

3. A departmental review committee should be charged with assembling a promotion dossier.

4. Recommendation for promotion will be by a vote of tenured and tenure stream faculty, and AS faculty at the rank of Senior Lecturer.

5. The Chair should submit a recommendation to the Associate Dean of Faculty Affairs on behalf of the department, with an appropriate supporting dossier.

6. Checklist for dossier for promotion to Senior Lecturer.
